CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN BARBARA WHITTERS & LILA VAN SLYKE HYDER REGARDING FAMILY & PROBATE OF DAVID CARSON (1800-1852) IN NORTH CAROLINA & MISSOURI: JULY 2, 1992 TO JANUARY 7, 1993

FOREWORD

These letters and the associated materials in this publication have only recently become available from the personal files of Lila Van Slyke Hyder, currently of Florence, Oregon. This represents some of the most exacting family and historical information regarding David Carson that Janet Meranda and I have been seeking (on and off) since 1989 in our efforts to produce a greater public understanding of the life – and its significance – of Letitia Carson.

This publication is probably of most specific interest to descendents of David Carson and of his immediate family, and perhaps those with an interest in Platte County, Missouri land ownership history. Of more general interest and value is David's relationship with Letitia Carson, and with their children, Martha and Jack. As Letitia becomes more of an important figure in history and in literature, her relationship with David Carson from 1844 to 1852 and to their children becomes more a critical factor of understanding who she was and what she was able to achieve following his death in late September, 1852.

Colored highlights and some annotations are my own – others (non-colored) most likely belong to Barbara Whitters or Lila Hyder.

Mrs. Lila Van Slyke Hyder 944 E. Myrtle Avenue Glendora, CA 91740

Dear Mrs. Hyder:

Your letter of 20 June to the Platte County Circuit Clerks Office has been referred to me for handling. I am the researcher for the Platte County Historical Society and also handle all queries received by the various offices in the Platte County Court House.

We only have 1 Naturalization book covering 1847-1860. The Carson men that appear in it are:

6/803 hn H. Carson, native of Ireland age 48. Application dtd 8/20/1851 *

8/20/1854 Application dtd 6/17/1854

I'm sorry that David is not included therein.

I also looked all my other research materials and came up with the following about David Carson:

Annals of Platte County by William Paxton, page 31d 7 Aug 1839 David Carson appointed (among others) to patrol Carroll Township to keep trespassers from burning and looting.

1839 first property tax list shows David Carson.

Early landowner list shows David purchased on 5 Jun 1843 160 acres in NW4 Sec 22 Twp 52 Rg 35 Lee Twp. This is East of East Leavenworth, MO and North of Farley.

Also shows James Carson purchased on 8 May 1843 160 A. in Sec 31 Twp 54 Rg 34 SW $\frac{1}{4}$

James Carson was a witness to an estate 11 Oct 1852.

Green Cemetery located near Farley, MO shows many Carson names. I'm enclosing copy of this.

I also checked the Probate files and did not find an estate for David.

Sorry to have been such little help to you. Keep us posted on your research.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Barbara Whitters

Dear Mrs Hyder:

Re your letter of 10 July asking where you can obtain naturalization records

You seem to be certain that David Carson was granted naturalization through the Platte County Court 19 Oct 1844. Your certainty may be all the proof you will ever get.

The reason that Plattæ County has such few records is that during the Civil War our records were all moved from Platte City to Weston for "safe keeping" and when moved back, many books did not make it. So many counties lost records due to fire - we lost ours due to a move that was unnecessary.

Also, for your information, prior to 1900 one did not have to be naturalized, hence another reason one finds so few records. One of my German ancestors fought in the Civil War and I was under the impression that in order to serve the Country one had to be a citizen. Wrong! The Department of Naturalization in Pennsylvania informed me that any one could join the Army (and did) and all early recorde, if any, were always kept in the County where the naturalization occurred.

Other than having a copy of the actual document, those records told very little. My grandfather was naturalized in the 1890s, being a native of England, and his papers list his name, birth date, country of birth and how long he had been in the States.

So, I'm sorry but I think you may have hit a dead end. Wish I could have been of more help to you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Barbara Whitters 18 Town View Circle

Mrs. Lila Van Slyke Hyder 944 E. Myrtle Avenue Glendora, CA 91740

Dear Lila:

Have decided you either are employed or are on a trip. Have been trying to telephone you with no success for the past several days. Tried at all sort of hours, day and night. Oh well, I'll just have to ask my question by mail.

WHY do you think that David Carson was your great great grandfather? Is there some documentation to the fact or are you assuming that because he came to Oregon first, then your great grandfather Andrew followed, that they were father and son?

You mentioned in our telephone conversation that in the book about the trek westward on the Oregon Trail David was referred to as Uncle Davy. It is my premise that that is exactly what he was!... great grandfather Andrew's uncle; brother to Andrew's father, Smith Carson.

Now that I've thrown a wrench into your thinking gears, I will try to explain how I came to this conclusion.

I think I told you that I have found a Platte County, Missouri Probate estate for David which had very few papers of consequence in the packet. However, one paper showed that someone was paying taxes on the land he owned in the NW4 of Sec. 22 Twp 52 Rg 35 (160 acres) for the years 1850 thru 1856. I also could not find (and still can't) a deed where the property was sold. So I decided to try a different line of search. I went to the Circuit Court books and Voila! found a Partition suit filed by the administrator of the estate (who also was the husband of David's niece Margaret) asking that he be allowed to sell the property as it could not be divided equitably among the heirs. In the Petition for Partition the heirs are named and their relationship to David is given. We end up with David having brothers James, John, Andrew Sr., Matthew and a sister Jane Blevins, plus Margaret Robinson and Ann Elizabeth Pryor, daughters of David's deceased brother Smith and two other mean, Robert and Andrew Carson

Please note that there is never mentioned that David had a wife or children.....

By the time David's estate was totally settled in November 1859 his brothers James and John Sr., were deceased. Of course brother Smith had predeceased him.

I have enclosed pages showing the Partition Suit which includes the Sheriff's report of sale for the sum of $1760.00 and his disbursement of funds after subtracting court costs etc., in the amount of $127.35 was to be from the balance of $1622.35. He then lists the following as paid:

Α.	Margaret Robinson and husband John Robert Carson Andrew Carson	$ 68.025 68.025 68.025
	Heirs of Ann Elizabeth Pryor Sr.,
	Margaret	22.6733
	William	22.6733
	Ann Elizabeth Jr.	 22.6733
	(above are heirs of Smith Carson,	$ 272.10
	David's deceased brother and they share his share of the estate)	-

B. James Carson

$272.10

(Sometime between Sept. 1854 when the Sheriff sold the land and and early 1858 when the first affidavit was made, James Carson must have died. His share of David's estate was then distributed to his heirs as follows:

Jane Young and husband Banjamin $129.20 William Carson $258.40

This amount is $13.70 short of being James' full share of the estate, however, there could have been court costs in this amount in North Carolina and Platte County.)

C. John Carson

$272.10

(Again, sometime between Sept. 1854 when the Sheriff sold the land and the early part of 1858 when the first affidavit was made, John Carson must have died. His share of David's estate was then distributed to his heirs as follows:

$24.67 to each of the following:

James H. Carson John H. Carson Robert Carson Thomas J. Carson

William Carson
Andrew J. Carson
Edwin Carson

Peggy, wife of Francis Bryan

Jane, wife of John Hawthorn

for a total of $222.03.

This amount is $50.07 short of being John's full share, so court costs could account for the difference here too.)

- D. Andrew Carson Sr. (Andrew only received $262.75 making a difference of $9.35 which again could be court costs)
- Mathew Carson

$272.10

F. Jane Blevins $272.10 (Jane, wife of Joseph Blevins, actually received only $222.25 making a difference of $49.85. Court costs again?)

The arithmetic the Sheriff (or Court Clerk) used leaves a lot to be desired. They sold the land for $1760.00 Less court costs

To distribute 6 ways $1633.65 = $272.28 each heir

The way the Sheriff adds he comes up with $127.35 in court costs and a balance of $1622.35 to distribute or $270.39 for each of the 6 heirs.

If the numbers are correct as to what was actually distributed (A thru F above) then he paid out $1509.63 leaving $112.72 unaccounted for (using his numbers) and $124.02 unaccounted for using correct figures.

Whatever, we now know who David's heirs were in reality and since there is no mention of a wife or children we can safely assume that David was a bachelor!

I then looked up all the other siblings and put their individual families together. The job was not made easy as the brothers each named one or two of their children the same name, i.e., John and Mathew both had sons named Smith (after their deceased brother); I John, James and Mathew all three had sons named William; John, Smith and Andrew all had sons named John; John, Smith and Mathew all had Roberts and John and Smith both had Andrews. This makes for total confusion and disorientation, but I think I got it all figured out. Of course, you will want to take all the information enclosed and make your own conclusions.

I'm also enclosing what I term "time-line" sheets that show me at a glance just exactly what information I lack on each person in the family. The numbers in parenthesis after the years indicate the persons age at that time.

The name of Rebecca that appeared on the Oregon estate papers is a puzzlement to me. The only Rebecca I unearthed was the daughter of David's nephew William, son of James. William had other children so it seems strange that just one was singled out BUT I would imagine that the information received by the Courts in Oregon at David's death had to have come from two people - David's black wife who probably didn't know very much about the family and your great grandfather Andrew who at 21 or 22 years of age, probably didn't know much more than Letitia.

I think every thing else enclosed is pretty self-explanatory, but if you have any question, please write or call (816-431-5576).

Sincerely,

Sarbara

Mrs. Barbara Whitters 18 Town View Circle Platte City, MO 64079

P.S. Two more things:

1. Andrew also had a son named Andrew who was born ca 1830 but I DO NOT believe this was your relative who came to Oregon even tho this family did come to Missouri settling in Barry County.

Andrew who was the son of Smith has to be your relative in Oregon simply because he was in Platte County with his parents at the same time that David was, thus giving him the incentive to follow his uncle west. Also Smith was in Stokes Co. at Andrew's birth.

2. If you will look at a map of Virginia and North Carolina you will see the proximity of Carroll County VA to Ashe and Stokes Counties, NC and also Haywood County NC.
